COME TO HORSE SHOW

Says He Has Seen No Democrat Who Will Vote for Judge Lewis.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 4.—Sen-ator Martin left for his home at Scotts-ville to-day. He expects to spend most of his time at home until the Richmond Heras Stowy when he will be in Bich-wille to-day. He expects to spend most of his time at home until the Richmond Horse Show, when he will be in Richmond for several days. He said to-day that the more he travels around since the primary the more he regards the fight being made by the Republicans a vain one.

"They talk about Democratic disaffections" he remarked, "and yet in all my travels I have yet to see or hear of a Democrat whe will vote for Judge Lewis. I am at a loss to know what the people who are putting UP so much money for the Republicans in Virginia expect to gain by it. But that is none of my affair."

Asked whether he had mapped out any legislative work for the coming session of Congress, Senator Martin replied that his attention had been so engrossed in the campulan that he had not considered that yet, but that he was not afraid, but that he would find plenty to do. He said he believed that the main subject that would engage the attion of Congress would be the enaction of railroad-rate legislation. He will probably offer as a strong one, eliminating the objectionable returns of the Esch-Townsond bill, which was jammed through the House with so much haste.
